ID required for Texas Voters

If you possess one of the following forms of acceptable photo ID, you must present it when voting in person:*

- ★ Texas Driver License issued by the Texas Department of Public Safety (DPS)
- ★ Texas Election Identification Certificate issued by DPS
- ★ Texas Personal Identification Card issued by DPS
- ★ Texas Handgun License issued by DPS
- ★ United States Military Identification Card containing your photograph
- ★ United States Citizenship Certificate containing your photograph
- ★ United States Passport (book or card)

Do not possess and cannot reasonably obtain one of these IDs? Fill out a declaration at the polls describing a reasonable impediment to obtaining it, and show a copy or original of one of the following supporting forms of ID:

- ★ A government document that shows your name and an address, including your voter registration certificate;
- ★ Current utility bill;
- ★ Bank statement;
- ★ Government check;
- ★ Paycheck; or
- ★ (a) A certified domestic (from a U.S. state or territory) birth certificate or (b) a document confirming birth admissible in a court of law which establishes your identity (which may include a foreign birth document).

*With the exception of the U.S. Citizenship Certificate, for voters aged 18-69, the acceptable form of photo identification must be current or have expired no more than 4 years before being presented for voter qualification at the polling place. A person 70 years of age or older may use a form of acceptable photo identification that has expired if the identification is otherwise valid.

Exemptions: Voters with a disability may apply with the county voter registrar for a permanent exemption to showing acceptable photo ID or following the Reasonable Impediment Declaration procedure at the polls. Voters with a religious objection to being photographed or voters who do not present an acceptable form of photo identification or follow the Reasonable Impediment Declaration procedure at the polls because of certain natural disasters may apply for a temporary exemption to showing an acceptable form of photo identification or following the Reasonable Impediment Declaration procedure at the polls. Please contact your voter registrar for more details.
